

"Building The World We Want To Live In"

September 1 – 3, 2010, Renaissance Hollywood Hotel - Hollywood, CA

- PARTIAL List of Confirmed Workshop Presentations (anticipate over 75 in total)

I) Intervention & Advocacy Track:

- Building Sexual Assault Advocacy Key Competencies - Kris Bein, Resource Sharing Project (RSP)/Iowa Coalition Against Sexual Assault & Sally Laskey,
- Latinas - Culturally Sensitive Outreach, Assessment and Interventions – Barbara Kappos, LCSW & Martha Cristo, PhD., East Los Angeles Women's Center
- Roundtable Discussion/Critical Conversation: Emerging Issues Related to Sexual Assault in Communities of Color - Condencia Brade, National Organization of Sisters of Color Ending Sexual Assault (SCESA), Canton, CT
- Rape in Prisons – A special mini-track of workshops sponsored by Just Detention International, Los Angeles, CA
- Expanding the Net: Resources for Men Who Have Had Unwanted or Abusive Sexual Experiences in Childhood – Steve LePore, 1in6, Inc, Santa Clarita, CA
- Working With Victims of Human Trafficking - Jen Adler, YWCA Rape Crisis Center of Silicon Valley, San Jose, CA
- Engaging Community and Systems to Build a Rural Sexual Assault Program – Alison Jones-Lockwood, Metropolitan Organization to Counter Sexual Assault (MOCSA), Kansas City, MO
- Latina Lesbians, Stigmatized, Invisible Group - Graciela Laguna, Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Madison, WI
- Victim Advocacy + Sex Offender Management = Sexual Assault Prevention: Why Collaboration Between the Fields of Victim Advocacy and Sex Offender Management Matters – A special mini-track of workshops sponsored by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA), Beaverton, OR

II) Prevention Track – (supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention)

- Transforming Communities to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse & Exploitation – Annie Lyles, Prevention Institute, Oakland, CA
- Green Dot: A Comprehensive Approach to Violence Prevention - Dorothy J. Edwards, Ph.D., Violence Intervention and Prevention Center, Univ. of Kentucky
- Celebrating Differences: Why culturally relevant and community specific strategies are our best hope for social change – Lydia Guy Ortiz, LGO Consulting, Dupont, WA & Kimber J. Nicoletti, Multicultural Efforts to End Sexual Assault (MESA) at Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN
- Introducing Vietnamese community organizing work to prevent domestic and sexual violence using community asset-based and Close to Home's model - Van Lan Truong, Close To Home, Dorchester, MA
- Working toward a world free of sexual violence: Virginia's Primary Prevention Guidelines – Brad Perry, Virginia Sexual & Domestic Violence Action Alliance (VSDVAA), Richmond, VA
- Adapting Gender-Based Violence (GBV) Programs to Gang-Affiliated Youth Populations - Lili Herrera & Frank Blaney, Peace Over Violence, Los Angeles, CA
- Building Young Men's Emotional Intelligence as Part of Sexual Violence Prevention - Pat McGann & Kedrick Griffin, Men Can Stop Rape, Washington, DC
- From Research to Practice: Designing Community Specific Prevention Programs, Meghan O'Connor, NYC Alliance Against Sexual Assault, New York, NY
- Rethinking Pornography: Media Literacy in Action – Gail Dines, PhD, Wheelock University, Boston, MA & Robert Jensen, PhD, University of Texas-Austin
- Beyond the Fourth Wall: Using Audience Interaction in Sexual Violence Prevention, Ben Murrie, Catharsis Productions, Chicago, IL

III) Legal Advocacy Track - (supported by The Legal Aid Society of San Francisco - Employment Law Center)

- Advocacy for Immigrant Victims of Sexual Assault - Leslye Orloff, Legal Momentum, Washington DC; Sonia Parras Konrad, ASISTA, Des Moines, IA; and Maria Jose Fletcher, Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center, Miami, FL
- Special workshops on unemployment insurance and wage claims, job protected leave, and employment issues, including sexual harassment in workplace (still confirming presenters)

The Legal Aid Society
EMPLOYMENT LAW CENTER

IV) Media & Technology

- Silence Speaks Digital Storytelling: Participatory Media Production to Address and Prevent Sexual Assault - Amy Hill, Center for Digital Storytelling, Berkeley, CA
- Toward S.V. 2.0: Using Web 2.0 Tools to Address Emerging Issues in Sexualized Violence - Marianne Winters and Carol Palmatier, Graphix for Change, Springfield, MA
- Activism and Organizing in a Digital Age - Erica Olsen, National Network to End Domestic Violence, Washington, DC
- Engaging Musicians – Ashley Maier, Oregon Attorney General's Sexual Assault Task Force, Eugene, OR
- A special panel discussion of television writers, organized by Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Hollywood, Health & Society Program at USC's Annenberg Norman Lear Center
- A special workshop presentation by keynote speaker, Samhita Mukhopadhyay, Executive Editor, feministing.com

V) Leadership Development

- Planning for the next generation of women of color leaders in the movement – Yolanda Gotier, LSCW, Alternatives to Family Violence, Commerce City, CO and Ellen Yin-Wycoff, Interim Executive Director, CALCASA, Sacramento, CA
- Leadership in Changing Times – Christi Hurt, Resource Sharing Project (RSP),
- Community Leadership Roundtables – This will be a series of roundtable discussions focusing on six difference communities (disabilities, LGBTQ, African American, Asian and Pacific Islanders, Native American/Tribal Communities, Latina/Latino). The discussions will be informally facilitated to help encourage dialogue and the exchange of information and best practices within each community.

VI) Wellness - (supported by The Joyful Heart Foundation)

- The Joy Diet: Self-Care for Advocates - Marta Sanchez, Artist. Speaker. Poet. Activist, Alameda County, CA
- Several other workshops, including yoga and other wellness-related activities (still confirming presenters).

