

Learn about the Collaboration of Victim Advocacy and Sex Offender Management

CALCASA is presenting a pre-conference institute and participating in a free event on “Understanding Sexual Abuse & Sexual Assault: Causes, Consequences and prevention” at the 33rd Annual Research and Treatment Conference sponsored by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA) held at the Manchester Grand Hyatt in San Diego, California, October 29 through November 1, 2014.

P-26 KEEPING THE VICTIM AT THE FOREFRONT: COLLABORATION BETWEEN VICTIM ADVOCACY AND SEX OFFENDER MANAGEMENT

PRELIMINARY | ADULT

Sandra Henriquez, M.B.A.
Executive Director
California Coalition Against
Sexual Assault (CALCASA)
Sacramento, California

Denice Labertew, J.D.
Director of Advocacy Services
California Coalition Against
Sexual Assault (CALCASA)
Sacramento, California

■ This workshop will look at the important role that victim advocates can play in the management of sex offenders. In gaining an understanding of the distinct purposes and functions of victim advocates and those working within sex offender treatment and management, partnerships that keep victims/survivors at the center can be formed.
