

2016 Statewide Conference
Transformative
Conversations to End Sexual Violence
June 20 - 22, 2016

Scholarship Information

CALCASA's 2016 Statewide Conference will be held on June 20-22, 2016 at the Double Tree by Hilton located at 2001 Point W Way in Sacramento. This year's theme is "Transformative Conversations to End Sexual Violence." Pre-conferences will be held on June 20th and workshops will be held on June 21-22, 2016.

Cal OES is sponsoring one or more scholarships to CA Rape Crisis Centers (RCC's) that are funded by a Cal OES Rape Crisis Center Grant. Cal OES is sponsoring 2 types of scholarships:

- RCC Staff (must agree to attend 1 pre-conference position specific forum and entire conference).
- RCC Executive Directors (must agree to attend Executive Director Meeting and entire conference).

CALCASA invites each CA RCC funded by a Cal OES Rape Crisis Center Grant to apply for a scholarship. Scholarships are given out on a reimbursement basis and will only cover primary form of travel and up to 3 nights of lodging. Scholarships will not cover, parking, per diem, or baggage fees. Scholarships are limited so please fill out the application and return (both pages) to scholarship@calcasa.org.

Scholarship eligibility requirements:

- Attend entire conference including pre-conference
- Agency must be funded by a Cal OES Rape Crisis Center Grant

Scholarship eligible expenses:

- Primary form of travel (i.e. Airfare, Amtrak) or mileage if traveling by car.
 - We ask that participants find the most economical form of travel.
 - Mileage is reimbursed at $.540 per mile and a Google map is required when requesting reimbursement from agency office to the Double Tree.
- Lodging (up to 3 nights) at the Double Tree offered at the CA Government rate of $95 per night plus tax.
 - Lodging will be reimbursed only to attendees whose agency is more than 50 miles away from the conference site (Double Tree Hotel).

Please mark (1) pre-conference below scheduled on June 20, 2016.

NOTE: The Executive Directors Meeting is only for ED's.
